

We're here to help!

The Library has A LOT of resources but navigating them, especially when you're just starting, can be a challenge. That's where our librarians and subject specialists come in. They can show you how to research a paper, find credible sources, track your citations, learn the basics on a new subject and request any materials you need.

So the next time you're assigned an essay on the growth of the Mongolian economy or you're stuck while researching the history of food in literature or you don't even know where to start with your presentation on the tax code, come see us!

Don't want to get out of your pajamas? Our librarians—and other staff—are available via chat or email, too!
